

GDPR clauses

The personal data collected in this form is used purely to enable us to respond to your inquiry and/or registration and/or accreditation. This data is processed and stored electronically for the express use of the SOMMET DE L'ELEVAGE. Fields identified with an asterisk are mandatory. Failure to complete the mandatory fields will mean that your request will not be processed or will lead to a delay in its processing.

You have a right to access, consult, amend and correct any data relating to you. You also have a right to refuse the processing of any personal data for legitimate reasons, as well as a right to refuse the use of your data for marketing purposes. Finally, you have the right to define how these rights are to be used both generally and individually, following your death. To exercise your rights, you must send a letter to the SOMMET DE L'ELEVAGE, including a photocopy of your passport or ID card that shows your signature to the following postal or electronic addresses:

- postal address: SOMMET DE L'ELEVAGE - 17 Allée Evariste Galois - 63170 Aubière - FRANCE
- or to the email address: info@sommet-elevage.fr

We also recommend that you consult our Privacy policy for further information on the processing of your data and encourage you to contact us for any other reason or question.
